

PROSPER EAGLE 2010 BASEBALL CAMPS

The 2010 Prosper Baseball Camp will be under the direction of Head Baseball Coach Rick Carpenter. Coach Carpenter, with over 600 wins and innumerable honors is certainly one of the most recognizable names in Texas High School Baseball. His teams have won 14 district titles, six regional championships, 3 5A state championships, and a National Championship in 2002. He has been named Texas Sports Writers State Coach of the Year three times, and has been honored numerous other times by various organizations as their Coach of the Year Honoree. Coach Carpenter has sent countless players to the Division I level including his two sons one of which is a current division 1 player and other plays in the Cardinals organization. He has also had numerous players drafted into professional baseball, and currently has two former players playing in the Major Leagues.

Assistant Baseball Coach Bryan Chaney comes to Prosper with 9 years of high school coaching experience. He began his career in Maypearl, Texas. Coach Chaney was in Maypearl for five years where he led the Panthers to the 2005 State Tournament. In 2006 he moved to Howe, Texas where he was the Head Baseball Coach and offensive coordinator for the football program. His teams made the playoffs two out of the three years. He is currently the pitching coach for the varsity at Prosper.
